

WHY READING MATTERS

At West Grantham, we understand that there is a clear correlation between students' reading ages and their educational outcomes. The graph below demonstrates how students with higher reading scores (horizontal axis) achieve higher grades (vertical axis). That's why we encourage reading across every part of the curriculum and place such value in being a word-rich school.

WEST GRANTHAM

Church of England Secondary Academy